

Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

VOL. XXX.

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1908.

No. 138.

PIONEER GRAVEYARD

Will be the Name of the Old Cemetery on Sixth Avenue.

AUXILIARY COMMITTEE

Appointed to Assist in the Work of Reclaiming the Abandoned Spot.

The council committee for the improvement and preservation of the old graveyard at the foot of Sixth avenue, west, held its first formal meeting a day or two ago.

The committee consists of Council men John B. Galbreath, Geo. E. Randle and Mayor Meacham.

Recently five ladies were appointed as an auxiliary committee and at the meeting held for organization five other ladies were added to this committee:

Mrs. Alex G. Warfield,
Mrs. Henry D. Wallace,
Mrs. Green Henry Russell,
Miss Julia Arnold,
Miss Ellen Young,
Miss Katie McDowell,
Miss Lucy Whitlock,
Mrs. S. A. Edmonds,
Mrs. Hampton Fox,
Mrs. Mary B. Campbell.

Most of the members of the auxiliary committee have accepted and all are enthusiastic in the work to which they will give their attention.

About four years ago the Kentuckian compiled a list of 167 names of persons buried in the old cemetery from 1812 to 1852. Only one body was buried there later than 1852, that of Dr. A. Webber, who was buried Dec. 23, 1873. In addition to the published list probably 20 others who were buried in the graveyard are known, their headstones having been entirely destroyed. All told about 200 names can be compiled and there are probably 50 more unmarked graves of unknown persons.

Very few of the headstones remain as they were originally. Many of them were native limestone slabs. Some have crumbled away, some have been broken, some have fallen flat and some that remain standing have had all lettering obliterated by the action of the elements. One headstone is almost surrounded by the trunk of a great elm tree three feet in diameter, that has grown up in the grave.

The committee has agreed that the name "Pioneer Graveyard" will be an appropriate one and it will probably be so named.

The committees will hold another meeting in the near future and perfect the plans for the contemplated improvements. It is expected that the central feature will be the erection of a suitable monument to the pioneers upon as large a scale as the money to be raised will justify. Walks will be laid out and graveled or concreted, trees will be set out and some kind of an enclosing wall or fence put around the lot, which contains about two acres. All of this work is to be taken up in detail and the preparation of the plans will be turned over largely to the ladies' auxiliary committee. This committee is expected to perfect its own organization shortly, elect a chairman and appoint sub-committees to devise ways and means for securing the funds needed.

The ground should be cleared of broken stones and the walks laid out this winter and the trees to be planted set out by spring and the erection of the monument should be begun early in the spring and its unveiling next summer should be made the occasion of a Hopkinsville Homecoming. Descendants of the pioneers whose graves are to be cared for should be invited to deliver addresses and the exercises to be held on the grounds made memorable in every way.

It is expected that the business men will aid in the work and contributions will be asked of those directly interested in honoring the memory of the old settlers. The ladies will probably get up some entertainments and find other ways to augment the fund.

So far as known there are no records of lot ownership in the graveyard. The ground was given to the town by Bartholomew T. Wood, whose grave has been located but is unmarked by a headstone at this time. It still belongs to the city and when improved it will be put under the care of the sexton of Riverside Cemetery.

It has not been decided yet whether an attempt will be made to rebuild the tomb boxes, straighten up those that lean or replace those that have fallen. So few of them are in good condition that it may be decided to take down all of the present markers and require those who wish the graves of their ancestors to be definitely marked to place marble slabs as markers.

THE SITE NOT YET SELECTED

Five Lots Considered For Hopkinsville's New Government Building.

HOPSON LOT A FAVORITE

Beautiful Second Ave. Lot Exceeds Appropriation In Cost.

Richard Fournchy, the government representative, left Saturday after inspecting the various sites proposed for the Government building. The Hopson property on Main street, the Hotel Latham park, the residence sites of A. M. Wallis and Miss Brobaugh, used jointly; the Gish lot and the residence lots of C. W. Duckett, J. B. West and J. C. Quick used jointly, were all considered. The last named property exceeds the $12,000 appropriation authorized, as there are three houses on the lots.

The Main street lot is by far the popular favorite, as the lot is beautifully situated and fronts a whole square, but the Latham site is a strong factor in the matter.

Mr. Fournchy has returned to Kansas City and will not make a decision in the matter for a week or two.

DADE-SANDALL

Popular Drummer Weds a Georgia Belle.

Mr. Lucian Dade, a young traveling man for a Cleveland, O., house, a son of Mr. Chas. L. Dade, of this county, was married yesterday to a popular Southern belle at Beaumont, Texas. The bride was Miss Willie Sandall, of Georgia, who was on a visit to her uncle, Judge W. L. Duff. Mr. Dade is one of the group of fine young men Hopkinsville has sent out to achieve success in other states. His many friends here will wish him much happiness.

Wood's Liver Medicine is in liquid form for malaria, chills and fevers, regulates the liver, kidneys and bladder, brings quick relief to biliousness, sick-headache, constipation. Pleasant to take. The $1.00 bottle contains 2/3 times the quantity of the 50c size. First dose brings relief, its tonic effects felt at once. Sold by Anderson-Fowler Drug Co., Incorporated.

Assignee's Notice

To Creditors.

All creditors of M. E. Nolen, assigned, are hereby notified to file their claims, properly proven, before me, at my office in Hopkinsville, Ky., on or before Dec. 19th, 1908.

JNO. E. RUSSELL, Assignee of M. E. Nolen.

For bargains in real estate call on J. F. ELLIS.

PAUL WINN OUT TO WIN

Running Like a Reindeer In The Louisville Post's Prize Contest.

CONTEST ENDS SOON.

Has Many Friends Who Hope to See Him Head The List.

The Louisville Post has on hand a hot contest for a number of prizes ranging from a $4,500 house and lot down to a trip to Cuba. In sub-district No. 2 Paul Winn, the young coal merchant of this city, is one of the leading candidates and the man who beats him will have to get up and hustle. He entered late but is making rapid strides toward success. The contest will close on November 28.

Mr. Winn has many friends here and in other places who are interested in his race and the energy he is putting into it will make him live up to his name. His friends are requested to leave votes for him at the Anderson-Fowler Drug Co.'s store, where subscriptions for the Post are taken.

Any assistance given him will be appreciated.

WHIRLWIND CAMPAIGN.

Dr. Ramsey to Speak in Christian.

Superintendent Crabbe has planned a "whirlwind campaign" for education in Kentucky," beginning November 28, and closing December 6, 1908. During this time noted speakers from home and abroad will be

Fruit Cake Made It?

If not, our show window will give a few splendid suggestions for the ingredients.

Our stock of Nuts, Citron, Raisins, Dates, &c. is unequalled, and are especially needed for Thanksgiving dinner.

W. T. Cooper & Co.,

Wholesale and Retail Grocers.

taking education in every town in the state.

Dr. Geo. J. Ramsey will be in Christian county on Saturday, Dec. 6, and will speak at the following places:

Pembroke at 10 a.m.
Hopkinsville at 2 p.m.
Crofton at 7 p.m.

Dr. Ramsey is a very entertaining speaker and he should be heard by large crowds at all of the above places.

W. E. GRAY,
Co. Supt. Schools.

Coming Wedding.

Mr. Gus. H. Moore, Jr., the popular young contractor, will be wedded next month to Miss Bessie Lee Williamson, of Texas, who has visited in this city and is a most charming young lady.

Farm Sold.

J. F. Ellis has sold T. M. Butler's farm in South Christian to parties from Marshall county. Listed less than a month.

A WHOLESALE TOBACCO DEAL

Three and a Half Million Pounds of the New Crop.

AMERICAN TOBACCO CO.

Takes Over 3,200,000 Pounds of the Bowling Green Growers' Association.

Owensboro, Ky., Nov. 16.—J. C. Englehardt, manager of the American Tobacco Company, in Owensboro, announced that the Bowling Green Tobacco Growers Association had sold to the American Tobacco Company [3,500,000 pounds of cured tobacco of the 1908 crop to be delivered at Bowling Green, Smith's Grove and Glasgow, Ky. The prices to be paid are as follows:

Grade No. 1, leaf and lugs, $9; trash $3.

Grade No. 2, leaf and lugs, $8; trash $3.

Grade No. 3, leaf and lugs, $7; trash $3.

Grade No. 4, leaf and lugs, $7; trash $3.

Grade No. 5, leaf and lugs, $6; trash $3.

This tobacco was sold under the same form of contract that has been in use in the Green River section for the past two seasons, and the tobacco will be graded and received by the graders appointed by the association. This is the first crop handled this way in Southern Kentucky.

The Bowling Green Association has pooled about five or six million pounds of tobacco, and has practically concluded arrangements to dispose of the balance of their crop to the American Tobacco Company under the same conditions.

ASYLUM PATIENT

Dies at Institution of Heart Failure.

Katie Height died at the asylum Saturday night of heart failure, aged about thirty years. She was received at the institution for treatment some time ago. The remains were sent to St. Vincent, Ky., Sunday for interment yesterday.

Bees Laxative Cough Syrup always brings quick relief to coughs, colds, hoarseness, whooping cough and all bronchial and throat trouble. Mothers especially recommend it for children, as it is pleasant to take. It is gently laxative. Should be in every home. Guaranteed. Sold by Anderson-Fowler Drug Co., Incorporated.

Residence Sold.

J. F. Ellis sold Saturday a residence corner 14th and Walnut. List your property if you want the cash.

COME AND SEE

A Large and Well Assorted Stock of

Plain and Fancy Silks,

Dress Goods and Trimmings

Cloaks, Jackets and Furs

Carpets, Rugs, Mattings

Linoleums and Oilcloths

Ladies and Mens Un'wear

Each and every line is complete at prices to suit all. I carry a full line of the celebrated Waynu Hosiery. Try them and you will be pleased.

T. M. JONES.

BANK OF HOPKINSVILLE

CAPITAL . . . . . $100,000.00.
SURPLUS . . . . . 35,000.00.

With the largest combined capital and surplus of any bank in Christian county, supplied with modern burglar proof safe and vault, we are prepared to offer our depositors every protection for their money.

3 per cent Interest on Time Certificates of Deposit.

HENRY C. CANT, President.

J. E. MCPHERSON, Cashier.

H. L. MCPHERSON, Assistant Cashier.

E. B. LONG, President. W. T. TANDY, Cashier.

CITY BANK

Capital, $60,000.00
Surplus, $75,000.00

This Bank ranks among the first in the state of Kentucky in proportion of surplus to capital.

In Surplus there is Strength.

We invite your account as a safe depository for your funds. Deposit your valuable papers in our vault—safe from fire and burglars.

3 PER CENT. INTEREST ON TIME DEPOSITS

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

HOPKINSVILLE KENTUCKY.

UNITED STATES DEPOSITORY.

Only National Bank in This Community

Capital . . . . . $75,000.00
Surplus . . . . . 25,000.00
Stockholders' Liability . . . . . 75,000.00

HAS A REGULAR SAVINGS DEPARTMENT

Three Per Cent Interest Paid on Savings and Time Deposit

J. F. GARNETT, Pres.
T. J. McREYNOLDS, V. P.

JNO. B. TRICE, Cashier.
F. W. DABNEY, V. P.

PLANTERS BANK & TRUST CO.

CAPITAL . . . . . $100,000.00.
SURPLUS AND PROFITS $16,000.00.

Through equipped for Banking and Trustee Business. Open an account and let us show you. Loans and Investments made. Acts as Adm'r. Extr. Trustee, Guardian, Agent, Receiver, etc. Buys and sells Real Estate, and Manages Property. Safe Fire and Burglar proof vaults.

3 Per Cent. Interest on Time Certificates.

A CLEAN SHOW WELL COSTUMED AND FULL OF RAPID ACTION.

FRANCIS GREY, Soprano

With Zinn's Musical Comedy Co., at Holland's Opera House, Three Nights, Starting November 19.

Of the Zinn Musical Company which appears at Holland's Opera House Nov. 19, for a three night's engagement, the Butte, Montana, Miner says:

The Lulu theater made a genuine hit indeed, with its musical comedy, which went on yesterday at the house for a run the length of which will be determined by the patrons' appreciation.

"Teozy weezy," the name of the show which the Zinn Musical Comedy company has put on this week, has been generous from a large sized audience.

It is surprising that a popular priced company can be so large and can offer the diversity of costume that the Zion company does. Everything is absolutely new. There is nothing frayed about the aggregation.

The chorus is composed of girls young, graceful and pretty, with strong voices. They sing infinitely better than most of the more pretentious offerings of the big circuit.

not much bearing on the show. It might as well have been called anything else.

The show is clean, well costumed and full of rapid action. The principals can sing and the funny more are funny. There are a few solos which would do credit to some Broadway offerings. The chorus is full of dash and life.

This offering seemed to meet with general appreciation, and applause

The show is in two acts like the regular musical comedy, and two leading men, West and Athan, possess genuine merit as comedians. Fred Lancaster and Celia Mavis can both sing and during the performance render several extremely creditable solos.

Zinn's company should be good for a long run at the Lulu, as it is giving a high class show, which cannot fail to please.

A Dishonest Dollar.

You cannot hide a dishonest dollar. You take a dishonest dollar and bury it clear down in the deepest part of the earth. There are two ways of getting it out again. You can roll it on rocks and mountain boulders; you may attempt to put that dishonest dollar down in the center of the earth; it will not stay there. No! It will begin to rock and move and overturn itself, until it comes to the resurrection of damnation.—Talmage.

"I suffered habitually from constipation. Doan's Regulates relieved and strengthened the bowels, that they have been regular ever since." —A. E. Davis, grocer, Sulphur Springs, Tex.

Leather Cleanser.

To clean leather, such as purses, hand bags, suitcases, undressed leather, and colored skins, use a reliable wall-paper cleaner. Mix as directed and apply in the usual manner, rubbing one way only.

Home Treatment

J-20

AIRSHIP GARAGE ON A ROOF.

Owner of New House in Paris Ready For Expedited Air Vehicle. Paris is taking time by the forelock. M. Gustave Morin, owner of a large house on the Boulevard Bonne Nouvelle, has arranged a roof garden with every facility as a station and garage for aeroplanes, says a Paris cable dispatch. All the new leases in the building are taken, because of the comfort of the tenant in the aeroplane.

M. Morin says the day of aerial vehicles is here, but that there is no place in Paris for them to land. There is, he says, too much traffic in the streets and the public places are blocked with monuments, so he is glad and encouraged to offer his roof, which projects over the roof furthest of a large shed, with a second movable roof, which can be opened on the approach of the flying machine. There is also space in the building for a tool shop and a reservoir of gasoline.

M. Morin has sent invitations to Mr. Wright and Santos-Dumont to inspect the first structure of this kind ever built.

ACT QUICKLY.

Delay Has Been Dangerous In Hopkinsville.

Do the right thing at the right time.

Act quickly in times of danger. Backache is kidney danger. Doan's Kidney Pills act quick. Cure all distressing, dangerous kidney ill.

Plenty of evidence to prove this. F. M. Hall, Cadiz, Ky., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and was pleased with the result derived. For six years my kidneys did not do their work properly. I had severe pains in the small of my back and whenever I stooped or lifted, sharp twinges would cause me great misery. At night my back ached considerably and mornings when first arising, would be very lame. I became tired easily and became very dull and languid. Dizzy spells also caused me much annoyance and at times blurred my eyesight. The passages of the kidney secretions were two frequent and at times I was forced to rise during the night on this account. Whenever I caught cold, it settled on my kidneys and caused me to suffer more intensely. I recently procured Doan's Kidney Pills and although I have used but the contents of one box, I have received great relief. I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as a remedy that is up to representations."

Plenty more proof like this from Hopkinsville people. Call at L. A. Johnson & Co.'s drug store and ask what their customers report.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doans—and take no other.

Fisherman Uses Telephone. According to the New York Daily News, a Norwegian fisherman has fitted up a telephone apparatus on his boat which enables him to hear the fish approaching and even to make a guess at their number.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought!

Bear the Signature of Chas H. Fletcher

Living Out.

It is a striking fact that even in the busy cities of South Africa, where one would expect there are in the colonies, the so-called barrack system being antipathetic to the temperament of the people.—Woman at Home.

Cheapest accident insurance—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Stop the pain and heals the wound. All druggists sell it.

Dead Men's Shoes.

"Waiting for dead men's shoes" refers to an old Hebrew custom that on the transfer of an inheritance the successor is to receive a shoe belonging to the former owner.

You naturally would prefer to treat yourself at home, for any form of female trouble, wouldn't you? Well, it can be done. No reason why you should not be able to relieve or cure your suffering, as thousands of other women have done, by proper use of the Cardui Home Treatment. Begin by taking the well-known female tonic. For sale at all drug stores.

Wine of Cardui

Joe Moorhead, of Archibald, I. T., writes: "My wife had suffered for years from female trouble. On your advice, I gave her the Cardui Home Treatment, and now she hardly suffers at all." Sold by druggists.

WRITE US A LETTER

Write today for a free copy of valuable 64-page illustrated Book for Women. If you need Medical Advice, describe your symptoms, giving age, and reply will be sent in plain sealed envelope.

Address: Ladies Advisory Dept., The Chatterbox Medicines Co., Chatterbox, Tenn.

Wanted At Once

5,000
TURKEYS!

ALSO EGGS.

Highest Cash Prices Paid. Call or Phone Us.
Home 1183, Cumb 167.

Peter Fox Sons' Co.

8th and Water St.

Hopkinsville, Ky.

WINTER
IS AT HAND

And the question of Coal will be a live issue for the next five months. Let us fill your coal house

WITH THE Celebrated OAK HILL

COAL.

There is no Better COAL
on the Market.

A Trial is All That is Needed to Convince You.

PAUL WINN.

Corner Second Ave. and L. & N. Railroad, Cumb, Phone 158

Poor CONCRETE WORK.

Is about the worst investment a man can have. Such work is either due to errors in construction, caused by lack of experience, or improper mixing and proportioning of materials.

Every Bit

of our material is measured and mixed systematically and our construction methods are the result of over

5 years of experience in railroad and sidewalk work.
To be on the safe side, let us do YOUR WORK.

Meacham Contracting Co.
(INCORPORATED.)

Two Hundred Thousand Families

The intellectual aristocracy of America, have one rule in magazine buying—
"The Review of Reviews first," because it is a necessity."

A MAGAZINE LIBRARY IN ONE MAGAZINE

The Review of Reviews

Has attained a larger subscription list than any magazine that deals wholly with serious subjects and is accepted as the best periodical to keep you up with the times. It is non-partisan.

NEITHER MUCK-RAKES NOR RIDES FACTS

With Dr. Albert Shaw's monthly "Progress of the World," with the curious history of the month, with the timely contributed articles on the most important subjects of the day, with the latest news and all the other valuable periodicals of the world for you, the sharpest, most readable, most popular news of the day, you keep intelligently up with the times, in mind, cost of time, effort and money.

YOU MUST SEE OUR BOOK OF MAGAZINE BARGAINS

Before ordering for next year. It contains forty pages of special offers, including all the leading magazines and periodicals. It will show you how to save money on your Chatterbox buying. This interesting and money-saving catalogue is FREE.

The Review of Reviews Company, 13 Astor Place, New York

PLAN TO HUNT DESERTERS.

Lead of Illustrated Circulars Sent to Each Police Chief.

A new system of tracing deserters from the United States army, which causes mail carriers in all parts of the United States to grow under the burden of franked "literature," has been devised. Every police chief in the country now receives bundles of a hundred circulars each containing pictures of each man who has deserted.

Twenty-four such bundles, on average, are received by Chief Shippy of Chicago each day. At first the mail carrier attempted to deliver them, but now he does not.

Each circular offers a reward of $20 for the arrest of the deserter and gives a description of him, his relatives' addresses and a copy of the law on making arrests. Month B. Lackey, who enlisted in the Seventh cavalry May 1 and is alleged to have deserted at Fort Riley, Kan., Sept. 30 and whose father lives at 517 Court Street, Springfield, Ill., is listed in the circulars.

Formerly the war department contented itself with sending to the police a list of the names and home addresses of deserters.

Johnnie's Position.

"Yes," began Mr. Peters, Sr., "John Peters, Jr., has quit school and has accepted a position in Davis' general store."

"I'm surprised," commented the summer visitor. "What are his duties?"

"He is superintendent of the cracker and cheese department," replied Mr. Peters, Sr., with guarded satisfaction. "He has the entire charge of wrapping up the cheese."—Youth's Companion.

AFRICAN HUNTING LICENSE.

President Roosevelt May Kill All Lions and Leopards He Wishes.

President Roosevelt not having signified his intention of asking special privileges for his hunting trip in British East Africa through diplomatic channels, it is supposed that he will take out an ordinary fifty pound license from the colonial office, says a London cables. The president, however, has not yet been applied for, although it is always usual to solicit such license several months in advance.

Under these each hunter is limited to sixty animals, except in the cases of lions, leopards and crocodiles, of which he may shoot as many as he wishes. As set forth in the new license, the president may kill "two elephants, two rhinoceros, two hippopotami, twenty-one antelopes, two monkeys, two earth hogs, two earth wolves, ten chevrotains, two monkeys, two warthogs, storks, two ostriches, two stags and one chamois." Giraffes, wild asses, secretary birds and a number of other species are fabled deer, antelope and other animals not endowed with special privileges.

President Roosevelt will be required to set forth in his own handwriting the animals he intends to kill as well as the locality where he will hunt. Before leaving Africa he will be required to declare what animals and how many he has killed.

One of the organizers of the trip, an American interested in the development of Nairobi, said recently that he did not believe the president would ask for diplomatic privileges, but he had an idea that a unique special license would be presented to him.

"The president will be delighted," said the man, "when he hears that he can shoot as many as he wants. He will have seen droves of buffaloes and dozens of lions and tigers wandering in the woods while the railway in Nairobi was being built. They would rush up to the very rails to see what was going on, and then would take to their heels. Now they are getting very timid, but I think President Roosevelt will have every bit of sport he expects."

A Piece of Coral.

The two men had not met for years. The man from out of town looked the other man over.

"I saw old Jim," he said. "Awfully glad to see you again. Strange how such old friends will drift apart. So you're married?"

The other man nodded.

"Three years ago."

"Well, well! And I never heard of what's that?"

He was still studying the other man's face, and his eye caught sight of a sequin of coral that dangled from his friend's watch chain. He noted it and looked at it more closely. The surface of the coral was roughened by slight indentations.

"Some sort of token, eh?" he rattled on. "You always was a great chap for picking up worthless trifles. That's a nice charm." He looked up and caught sight of the other man's face.

"Why, I beg your pardon, Jim," he cried.

"That's all right," said the other man a little mystified. "Only, you see, the boy whose teeth made those marks was nearly two-died last summer."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A Tragic Coincidence.

In 1863 a German predicted that he would be a victim of a war that would take place in 1868. The war occurred, and after his prediction, two years later he was laughing at his old time prophecy and boasting of his good health. In this happy mood he bought an old cottage from a friend and straitway went to inspect it. In the garden there was a quantity of old iron and among it a shell dating from 1863. He picked it up and was examining it when it exploded and he was killed on the spot. The prophecy had come true.—Bielefeld Zeitung.

List your real estate for sale with J. F. ELLIS.

Hopkinsville Market.

Corrected Wednesday Oct. 28, 1908.

GROCERIES.

EGGS AND FRESH MEATS.

Eggs, per dozen, 14¢; per lb., 12¢. Poultry per lb., 3¢. Roasters per lb., 12¢. Turkey, fat, 10¢; lean, 6¢. Duck, per lb., 7¢. Roasters, per lb., 8¢. Full feather geese, per dozen, $4.00 to $5.00.

Sides, per lb., 12¢; lard, per lb., 12¢; Eggs, per dozen, 25¢.

Wholesale Prices.

Eggs, 18¢ doz. 14¢; 6 lb. 12¢. Poultry per lb., 3¢. Roasters per lb., 12¢. Turkey, fat, 10¢; lean, 6¢. Duck, per lb., 7¢. Roasters, per lb., 8¢. Full feather geese, per dozen, $4.00 to $5.00.

GRAIN.

No. 2 Northern, mixed oats per bushel, 55¢; No. 1 Timothy hay, per ton, $12.00; No. 2 Timothy hay, per ton, $12.00; No. 1 Clover Hay, per ton, $10.00; Mixed Clover Hay.

POULTRY, EGGS AND BUTTER.

Prices paid by wholesale dealers to producers and dairymen:

Live Poultry—Hens, per lb., 6¢. Butter—Packing stock per lb., 14¢. ROOTS, HIDES, WOOL AND TAL-LOW.

Prices paid by wholesale dealers to butchers and farmers:

Roots—Southern ginseng, $5.00 lb.; "Golden Seal" yellow root, $1.00 lb.; Mayapple, 2¢; pink root, 12¢ and 18¢. Tallow—No. 1, 4¢; No. 2, 3¢.

Wool—Burr 5 to 17¢; Clear Grease, 17¢ Medium, tub-washed, 20¢ to 27¢; coarse, dingy, tub-washed, 18¢ to 23¢.

Primes—Prime, white goose, 45¢ dark and gray mixed old goose, 15¢ to 30¢; gray and mixed, 15¢ to 30¢; white duck, 20 to 30¢.

Hides and Skins—These quo- tations are for Kentucky hides. Southern green hides 7½¢. We quote ascertained lots: dry skin, 10¢ to 12¢.

Engine For Sale.

For sale, a good second hand gasoline engine, 2½ horse power. Fairbanks-Morse make, overhauled and in good running order. Will be seen at M. H. McGREW, Machine Shop.

Corner 8th and Clay Sts.

When You Visit Nashville

STOP AT THE NEW CENTRAL HOTEL,

The most centrally located hotel in the city, on Sixth Ave., North, near corner of Church street. All cars from Union station pass within two doors of the house. Delightful rooms, splendid table and all the comforts of home. No better place for shoppers. Fine double rooms for convention parties. Within 2 blocks of capital.

RATES REASONABLE.

Special Rates to Parties of Four or More.

Dining Room in charge of Mrs. O. G. Hille, formerly of Hopkinsville, Ky.

CHOICE BARGAINS!

Some Fine Offers in Farm Lands and Town Lots.

505 acres, 10 miles south of town, on the Clarksville pike, and close to R. R. station on the I. C. road, near school house, and with all modern improvements. This is as fine a body of land as you can find anywhere, and produces large quantities of wheat, corn, hay and tobacco. Has 40 to 50 acres fine timber, 4 tobacco barns, 1 large stock barn, 1 hay shed, 8 cabin windmill and tank, and all improvements necessary to a first class farm. If you are looking for something extra at a bargain don't fail to see this place.

222 acres, 2 miles south of Garrettsburg—100 acres of this is in timber, containing a lot of red and white oak and poplar, 2-story brick dwelling, 2 tobacco barns, 1 stable, 4 cabins, and other necessary improvements. This place is offered at a real bargain.

200 acres, near Pembroke, rich land and well improved. Run right up to within 1-mile of the best little town on earth.

211 acres, 5 miles south of town, improvements good, and everything in good shape. An opportunity you cannot afford to miss.

261 acres—only 2 miles from town on the Russellville pike. This farm can be bought cheap, and is an ideal location, and a highly productive place, with good improvements.

309 acres near Bell, Ky. This is a well improved farm, and just what you are looking for. Splendid dwelling, good stable and large tobacco barns and all other out buildings. 40 acres good timber, balance in a high state of cultivation.

18 acres just outside the corporate limits of Hopkinsville, splendid house and all necessary out buildings. Just the very best place you know of to raise hickens and run a garden and fruit farm.

We have some very desirable homes for sale on the best residence streets in the city and at real bargain figures.

A right new modern cottage for sale or rent on 13th street, in the old Sharp addition.

Another one at a bargain on West 18th St.

Also some desirable building lots in different parts of the city at ridiculously low prices.

Call and see us if you are interested in a good home, either in the city or country. Now is the time to buy good property at prices that appeal to your pocket-book.

If you are looking for a good established business, well located, we have got just what you are looking for, and at the right price.

The Best Home Butchered Meats of

All Kinds.

QUALITY, Our Motto

B. B. RICE,

PHONES: Cumb. 27, Home 1127.

Planters Bank & Trust Co.

The Kentuckian.

Published Every Other Day.
TUESDAY, THURSDAY and SATURDAY MORNINGS, BY

CHAS. M. MEACHAM.

Entered at the Hopkinsville Postoffice as Second Class Mail Matter.SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
One Year.....
Two Months.....
Three Months.....
Four Months.....
Visiting Rates on Application.

212 SOUTH MAIN STREET.

NOV. 17, 1908.

The Weather.

FOR KENTUCKY—Generally fair
Tuesday. Rising temperature.

At last we are rid of the mosquitoes.

Grand Duke Alexis, uncle of the czar of Russia, died in Paris Saturday, aged 58 years.A tuberculosis hospital with a capacity of 100 patients, is to be built by Jefferson county and the citizens of Louisville.Woodford, Fleming, Madison and Hardin counties held Democratic primary elections Saturday. There were some hot contests and several close finishes.The attention of the trio who are under indictment in Nashville for the murder of E. W. Carmack is called to the fact that Morris Haas, after attempting to assassinate Henry in San Francisco, saved the state the trouble of a prosecution
by killing himself.Secretary of the Navy, Victor H.
Metcalf has resigned to take effect
Dec. 1 and assistant Secretary Tri-man H. Newbury will be promoted to first place until March 4 when President Taft will form the new Cabinet. Mr. Newbury is a new man in public life, having been appointed to his present position three years ago. Prior to that time he was a Detroit business man.The first issue of The Focus, published by Denny B. Goode, has made its appearance in Louisville. It is a sixteen page newspaper, printed on excellent paper and typographically is good to look upon. Politics, society and music have departments, while there are pages devoted to tickle the funny bone. In the subsequent issues changes are to be made in the make-up which will further add to the attractiveness of the publication.Kuang Hsu, the weakling emperor of China, is dead. He ascended the throne in 1876, when a child, and has never been from under the domination of the Dowager Empress, the widow of his uncle, who has been the regent and virtually the ruler.
The Emperor's death was hastened by the lack of proper medical attention, as he would have none but Chinese doctors, who have never adopted modern methods. The aged but strong minded Dowager Empress is also dead.

Appointed Trustee.

The Planters Bank and Trust Company, of this city, has been appointed trustee in the case of the Hopkinsville Lumber Co., bankrupt. An order to this effect was entered in the United States Deputy Clerk's office at Owensboro.

John Baxter Dead.

John Baxter, a trusted employee of the street department and one of the best and most industrious colored men in the city, died Saturday morning. Funeral services were held yesterday. He was about 45 years old.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by continuous remedies. Deafness is caused by an unhealthy condition of the body, the result of the kidney disease. When this tissue is infected, have a rumbling sound in the ear, hearing, and when it is extremely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the kidney disease is removed, it is impossible to restore it to its normal condition.
The kidney disease is the result of an inflamed condition of the membranes.

We have the best Remedy for any case of Deafness (caused by Cataract) that can be cured by Hau's Ocular Cure. Send for a specimen free.

F. J. CHENEY &amp; CO., Toledo.

Send by mail, inc. 25c.

Take Hau's Family Pills for constipation.

LEG BROKEN

Had Accident to McLean College Player Sunday.

The McLean College football team played the Chess Club team of Paducah Saturday, which resulted in a tie—5 to 5. The contest was close and strong and several of the local boys were more or less injured. D. A.
Meacham, a son of Mr. R. M. Meacham, McLean's left guard, had both hands of his right leg broken while tackling Sights, of Paducah. The young man was attended to by Paducah physicians and brought home Sunday.
Cocks took Meacham's place in the game and the contest went on until darkness ended the contest.

If you are a sufferer from that most distressing affliction, piles, and have tried many remedies without being benefited we can safely say that Manzan Pile Remedy will bring relief with the first application. Sold by Anderson-Fowler Drug Co., Inc.

An Overdose of M. O.

Wheeling, W. Va., has gone more deeply into municipal ownership than most cities of this country, owning, as it does, its own water, gas and electric plants. These plants have all been allowed to run down until they are deteriorated to the point of non-use.

The water has been set aside to balance this desperation. Now the city finds that there is no ready market for its bonds, and as a result things are going from bad to worse until the people are forced to turn again to private enterprise, as shown by the following paragraph in the Municipal Journal and Eagle.

"Well drillers are finding a fruitful field in Wheeling at the present time as the result of the commendable efforts of public spirited men and women of the various wards. Physicians believe that the waters of the Ohio River are specially suited to the number of fever cases resulting from Ohio River water. The drilling of wells is paid for by subscriptions pledged by residents in the neighborhood."

The cost of the wells will not show in the report of the water department.

The Soulless Corporation.

Here is another example of the soulless gas corporation. Mankato, Minn., has been suffering sooty through and through an epidemic of typhoid fever. To add to the discomfort of the patient:
the weather temperature was very high during the worst of the fever outbreak.
To add to the suffering, Mr. E. L.
Evans, general manager of the Mankato Gas and Electric Light company, caused the following notice to be published throughout the city:

"The Mankato Gas and Electric company will gladly install an electric fan for any one who is seriously sick during the present epidemic without any charge, and will, without the party is within reach of our current, advise us through your attending physician."

American Gas Light Journal.

A Municipal Brewery.

The Vlenn municipal brewery, in which a sum of $400,000 has been invested, has been operating at a loss of $20, 000. In the previous sixteen months a loss of $10,000 was incurred, so that the actual deficit for 1907 was proportionately greater, although the output and sales of beer had increased. In 1907 some 2,750,000 gallons of beer were brewed. Not only was too much beer made for the market, but the management in the first place, but the management has been very stupidly conducted. Instead of appointing as manager an expert brewer, the council put a municipal official in charge. As a result, money was lost in all sorts of ways—London Standard.

An Way to Be Expected.

Five years ago London took over its waterworks, with the result that water rates have increased rather than diminished. Referring to the operating expenses, Sir Nevill Beachcroft, chairman of the water board, recently said:

"So far it must be admitted that no saving had been effected. I do not think that it was ever anticipated that there would be any saving in the expenses of administration, as the management of a trading concern by a municipal body must always involve extortion, quite aside that which falls on a private company."

Where It Pinches.

"Disgusted" writes to the London Daily Express: "For years past I have always paid at the rate of 21 shillings per annum for water under the New River company, but now I have just received a bill for 21 shillings per annum. The bill is double the New River company's charge for water at the rate of 21 shillings per annum. This is the benefit (?) we get for doing away with private enterprise and is, I consider, a fair specimen of state trading."

At a meeting called by the board of trade of Auburn, N. J., and attended by about 150 citizens, the proposition to install a municipal waterworks was overwhelmingly defeated.

"An elephant must be a pretty expensive animal."

"Yes, I wish I had enough money to buy one."

"Why do you want an elephant?"

"I don't want an elephant at all. I merely expressed a wish for the money."—Exchange.

LYON FARMERS
RAISE PROTESTObject to Methods Employed
By the Planters Protective Association.

WANT IMMEDIATE SALE

Hold Mass Meeting and Introduce Resolutions of Protest.Eddyville, Ky., Nov. 16.—About 500 farmers of Lyon county met in Kuttawa and Lamasco, and passed a set of resolutions in connection with the Planters' Protective Association, the organization in which they have all pooled their tobacco crops. The meeting was called to protest against the manner in which the pooled tobacco in the association is being handled.

Hugh Lyon, the precinct chairman of the Lyon county branch of the association, was one of the principal figures of the mass-meeting, which was called to consider the advisability of the farmers of Lyon county signing the pooling contracts for another three years.

HAVE MANY COMPLAINTS.

It is understood that members of the association in several adjoining counties will take up the several questions with the hope of agreeing upon a policy that will enable the growers to get their money sooner and with less expense and loss to their crops. The growers claim that they can arrange to get an average of 9 cents in cash upon the delivery of their crops and that is what they are fighting for.

In concluding the resolutions the mass-meeting set forth in strong language the position they would take should the association fail to redress the alleged wrongs and complaints noted. They firmly resolve as "white, free-born citizens never to sign another obligation to the present Planters' Protective Association."

The resolutions are as follows:

PETITION THE OFFICERS.

"Resolved, first, That we respectfully petition President Felix G. Ewing and the executive committee of the Planters' Protective Association of Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia to allow our county chairman and our committee to sell the remainder of our 1907 crop of tobacco for the best price obtainable because we have complied with our obligation to the association by delivering our 1907 crop of tobacco to persons and places named by the association, and when the pricers received our 1907 crop of tobacco our obligation to the association was fulfilled.

"Resolved, second, That we find some of our 1907 crop was prized in a damaged condition, thereby decreasing the value of the tobacco and preventing a sale of same at the established association price.

"Resolved, third, That we feel that the association has not dealt with us as we were led to believe that it would, because it hasn't sold our tobacco and some of our tobacco was sold at a reduced price.

CAUSING DISSATISFACTION.

"Resolved, fourth, That because our tobacco has not been sold is causing much dissatisfaction among our people, for we need the money that is involved in the remainder of our 1907 crop of tobacco to pay our taxes, our rents, our store accounts, doctors' bills, etc., and we feel that we are being imposed upon by not having our tobacco sold or being allowed to sell it ourselves.

"Resolved, fifth, that we respectfully petition President Felix G. Ewing and the executive committee of the Planters' Protective Association of Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia to establish a fair and reasonable price on our tobacco in three classes, leaf, lugs and trash, and allow our county chairman and committee to sell our 1908 crop of tobacco loose, and on these terms and conditions:

PLACES FOR 1908 CROP.

"That in consideration of a satisfactory bond to the effect that any man or men or company will buy all our 1908 crop at the association price, the county chairman and his committee be allowed to employ a grader for each receiving house in the county, and when the farmer delivers his tobacco have his tobacco priced at the receiving house, door priced at the pricer or allow the buyer to reserve the pricer's fee, pay the store house stockholders their percentage; pay the grader his percentage; pay the association its 1 percent. commission as soon as the tobacco is weighed, whereby allowing the farmer saving of salesman's charges, saving of insurance, saving of several hands of tobacco that is now used as types, saving of interest on any money that may be advanced to him under present methods; saving of cost of breaking tobacco and saving of cost of haulage or drayage; allowing him the greatest advantage of receiving all his money at once and where he delivers his tobacco. Also allowing the buyer the privilege of handling, grading and prizing his tobacco to suit himself.

"Resolved, sixth, That we desire to continue our membership in the Planters' Protective Association, and we desire to pay any reasonable commission or the present percentage to maintain the association.

ENTITLED TO VOICE.

"Resolved, seventh, That we furnish the land, the labor and the money to produce our tobacco, and we feel, as free and intelligent citizens, that we are entitled to a voice in the management of the business of any organization to which we belong.

"Resolved, eighth, That we desire to work in harmony with each other and with the Planters' Protective Association for the profit and well-fare of all persons concerned.

"Resolved, ninth, That the present method of handling our tobacco by the association is not profitable nor satisfactory to the farmers of Lyon county, and we form and adopt these resolutions because we want to be benefited by them, and do not intend to nor desire to do anything detrimental to the welfare of the association.

"Resolved, tenth, That unless these resolutions or other methods are adopted by which the tobacco industry will be more satisfactory and profitable to the Lyon county farmers we firmly resolve, as white, free-born citizens, never to sign another obligation to the present Planters' Protective Association."

Pinakes for the Kidneys, 30 days' trial $1.00. Hundreds of people testify to the merit of this preparation in the relief of kidney trouble, rheumatism, Lumbago, backache. Pinakes act directly on the kidneys, purify the blood and make you feel like a new person. They tone the system.
Sold by Anderson-Fowler Drug Co., Incorporated.

FOR SALE AT A BARGAIN.

Scholarship in one of the best Universities of the South. Good for any department. Address this office.

The Big Musical Event
Of the Season.HOLLAND'S
OPERA HOUSE3 BIG NIGHTS 19
Starting Thursday, NOV. 19

ROLICKING MUSICAL COMEDY

ZINN'S
Musical Comedy Co.
AND

Famous Dancing Girls,

Presents a series of New York's latest Musical Comedy Successes at Popular Prices

25-35-50-75 cts.

Thur. Eve. Teesy Weesy
Fri. Eve. The Telephone Girls
Sat. Mat. The Prince and the Girl
Sat. Night The Japanese Courtesans

Secure Your Seats Now at Anderson-Fowler Drug Co., Incorporated.

BEST GAIN MATINEE SATURDAY.

PRICES
15 and 25 cts. to All Parts of the House.

PHONES: Home 1318; Cumb. 134.

NO. 11, E. 7th Street.

PUBLIC SALE!

Having sold my farm, I will sell at PUBLIC OUTCRY at my late home, the M. F. WIN-FREE place, NEAR CASKY on Wednesday Dec. 2, 1908

the following property:

30 Head of Horses and Mules; Binders, Mowers, Drills, Plows single and double, 3 Wagons and Harness; Cultivators and various implements, Tools, etc.

Also 40 Tons Clover Hay and 75 Bbls.
Corn.

Terms made known on day sale.

Hugh Hammock,
R. R. NO. 2, PEMBROKE, KY.

At A Glance You'll See the Difference

Between Our Distinctive Suits and the Other Kind--

There's no "cut and dried" appearance about them; they're full of quality and animation--they are good to look at and good to wear.

We also ask your special attention to our $15.00, $20.00 and $25.00 Suits

J. J. Hall & Co.
ONE PRICE STORE

BRACKROGGE BROTHERS

Pure Whiskies,
Brandies and Wines

For Medical
And Family Use.

Orders Delivered to Any Part of the City.

PHONES: Home 1318; Cumb. 134.

NO. 11, E. 7th Street.

For the Kidneys, Bladder, and Rheumatism.
RELIEVES

BACK-ACHE

For Sale by Anderson-Fowler Drug Co., Incorporated.

Pineules
30 days' treatment for $1.00.
Satisfaction
guaranteed or money refunded
For Sale by Anderson-Fowler Drug Co., Incorporated.

A FEUD AND ITS FINISH.

By CLARISSA MACKIE.

Copyrighted, 1908, by Associated Literary Press.

Amelia Vernet sat out on the sand spit, waiting for the turn of the tide. She had become absorbed in her sketching, and time had passed unnoticed until the curling wash of water told her that the sand spit had become a temporary island.

It was midday now, and she could not hope to reach the mainland before 5 o'clock—unless she waded. Amelia looked down at her pretty tan shoes and then turned and peered over the sand dunes toward the town.

The tide was now low, water out of escape for the present. Out in the bay a few salts flushed in the sun, light, but none was within hailing distance.

Amelia picked up her pencil and returned to her sketch book. "Aunt Tom will be worried," she thought, "if I don't return to luncheon, and I am not satisfied of my powers, for that her predictions have been fulfilled; at last the tide has caught me on the sand spit."

A shadow fell across the open book. Amelia lifted a startled face to meet the astonished eye of a tall young man.

"I—I beg your pardon," he stammered, lifting his white canvas hat.

"I thought I had the island to myself."

"I wish you had," said Amelia plaintively. "the turn of the tide is responsible for my presence here."

"Mine too. I became interested in this country, and I have been here a dozen afternoons when the water crept around my ankles and woke me up."

He thumped vigorously upon the offending volume and cast it from him. "I suppose there is no escape until 3 or 4 o'clock."

"None," sighed Amelia, "and nothing to eat!"

"Well, we'll see about that." The stranger disappeared behind the dune, and Mella saw him making haste toward the narrow inlet.

"How shocked Aunt Tom would be if she could see me talking to a perfect stranger, but—I am quite sure he is a gentleman, and I must be staying in the pictures taken near by. His face is familiar, and yet—"

He came around the dune and sat down on the sand beside her. "I hope you will share my luncheon," he said courteously. "A thoughtful aunt prepared it for me again, possible starvation between an 8 o'clock breakfast and 12:30 luncheon." He opened the good dried basket which he had brought and removed a snowy fringed napkin.

"You're awfully kind," murmured Amelia hungrily. "I hope it's not robbery you."

"Not in the least. We are castaways, and must make the best of the food we have saved," he said merrily.

"There should be a cask of water and some timed things."

"Here are a flask of lemonade and a cup, chicken salad sandwiches, nougat cake and grapes—a very tidyline repast!"

The young man spread a napkin on Amelia's lap and helped her generously. "Were you sketching?" he ventured, glancing down at her drawing materials.

"Yes, a little—the marsh and the sloping hill beyond, with its masses of cedar and maple. Would you like to see my sketches?"

"Yes," he replied, raising the book and opening at the page she indicated. In one corner she had inscribed her signature in bold black characters, "Amelia Vernet." He glanced at the name, and his eyes shot a peculiar look at the girl.

Amelia was looking at his strong hands, her eyes clasping the sketch book. Very capable, fine muscled digits they were too.

"Your sketch is good," he said sincerely, putting the book aside.

When the last crumb of powdered had disappeared, Amelia sighed contentedly. "That was the most delicious meal I ever ate," she said gratefully.

"Aunt Tom is a famous cook," he replied carelessly as he returned the napkins to the basket.

"Aunt Tom!" repeated Amelia. She seemed to stiffen under his look of surprise.

"What? A man may have an Aunt Thomasina, may he not?" Amelia flushed at the mischievous look in his gray eyes.

"Of course," she said, with reserve. "Only, you see, I have an Aunt Thomasina too."

"Aunt Tom Forrest, I'll be honest," said her companion, announced Amelia blushing.

"Oh, by Jove! A great-saint?"

"Yes."

"So's mine. Then I went to school with you! You remember Donald Forrest?" he asked, with a twinkle in his eye.

"I used to sit at his feet and shuck the sand from her white skirt. She looked very young and lovely standing there in the brilliant October sunshines with the blue sky reflected in her eyes. She also looked very cruel and quite like a lady in a tragedy when she closed down at him."

"I believe I remember you," she said easily. "I also remember the French fete. No Vernet ever speaks to a Forrest willingly. But I have taken of your lunch, sir, and I thank you for your courtesy. You will excuse me if I return to my sketching."

Amelia turned to his feet. The red

and the angry light in his eyes seemed to leap like little flickering flames.

"It is a small matter, madam,"

Forrest is courteous to friend or enemy."

"I picked up his hat and basket and, with a low bow, disappeared as suddenly as he had come.

Amelia sat down again, feeling very small and mean. It was quite evident that the heir of the house of Forrest would have ignored her if she, the poor wife of the coachman, had chosen to overlook the antipathy that had lasted for sixty long years.

But Amelia Vernet was Virginian to the core, and, although she never really knew the cause of the estrangement between the two families, she had always minded the trials of Amelia's life.

She here was a young man, last of the Forrests, as Amelia was last of the Vernetts, and they must carry on the feud.

Amelia sighed involuntarily, for she had liked the young man who had been away so long and who must have recently returned.

It was midday now, and she could not hope to reach the mainland before 5 o'clock—unless she waded.

Amelia looked down at her pretty tan shoes and then turned and peered over the sand dunes toward the town.

The tide was now low, water out of escape for the present. Out in the bay a few salts flushed in the sun, light, but none was within hailing distance.

Amelia picked up her pencil and returned to her sketch book. "Aunt Tom will be worried," she thought, "if I don't return to luncheon, and I am not satisfied of my powers, for that her predictions have been fulfilled; at last the tide has caught me on the sand spit."

A shadow fell across the open book. Amelia lifted a startled face to meet the astonished eye of a tall young man.

"I—I beg your pardon," he stammered, lifting his white canvas hat.

"I thought I had the island to myself."

"I wish you had," said Amelia plaintively. "the turn of the tide is responsible for my presence here."

"Mine too. I became interested in this country, and I have been here a dozen afternoons when the water crept around my ankles and woke me up."

He thumped vigorously upon the offending volume and cast it from him. "I suppose there is no escape until 3 or 4 o'clock."

"None," sighed Amelia, "and nothing to eat!"

"Well, we'll see about that." The stranger disappeared behind the dune, and Mella saw him making haste toward the narrow inlet.

"How shocked Aunt Tom would be if she could see me talking to a perfect stranger, but—I am quite sure he is a gentleman, and I must be staying in the pictures taken near by. His face is familiar, and yet—"

He came around the dune and sat down on the sand beside her. "I hope you will share my luncheon," he said courteously. "A thoughtful aunt prepared it for me again, possible starvation between an 8 o'clock breakfast and 12:30 luncheon." He opened the good dried basket which he had brought and removed a snowy fringed napkin.

"You're awfully kind," murmured Amelia hungrily. "I hope it's not robbery you."

"Not in the least. We are castaways, and must make the best of the food we have saved," he said merrily.

"There should be a cask of water and some timed things."

"Here are a flask of lemonade and a cup, chicken salad sandwiches, nougat cake and grapes—a very tidyline repast!"

The young man spread a napkin on Amelia's lap and helped her generously. "Were you sketching?" he ventured, glancing down at her drawing materials.

"Yes, a little—the marsh and the sloping hill beyond, with its masses of cedar and maple. Would you like to see my sketches?"

"Yes," he replied, raising the book and opening at the page she indicated. In one corner she had inscribed her signature in bold black characters, "Amelia Vernet." He glanced at the name, and his eyes shot a peculiar look at the girl.

Amelia was looking at his strong hands, her eyes clasping the sketch book. Very capable, fine muscled digits they were too.

"Your sketch is good," he said sincerely, putting the book aside.

When the last crumb of powdered had disappeared, Amelia sighed contentedly. "That was the most delicious meal I ever ate," she said gratefully.

"Aunt Tom is a famous cook," he replied carelessly as he returned the napkins to the basket.

"Aunt Tom!" repeated Amelia. She seemed to stiffen under his look of surprise.

"What? A man may have an Aunt Thomasina, may he not?" Amelia flushed at the mischievous look in his gray eyes.

"Of course," she said, with reserve. "Only, you see, I have an Aunt Thomasina too."

"Aunt Tom Forrest, I'll be honest," said her companion, announced Amelia blushing.

"Oh, by Jove! A great-saint?"

"Yes."

"So's mine. Then I went to school with you! You remember Donald Forrest?" he asked, with a twinkle in his eye.

"I used to sit at his feet and shuck the sand from her white skirt. She looked very young and lovely standing there in the brilliant October sunshines with the blue sky reflected in her eyes. She also looked very cruel and quite like a lady in a tragedy when she closed down at him."

"I believe I remember you," she said easily. "I also remember the French fete. No Vernet ever speaks to a Forrest willingly. But I have taken of your lunch, sir, and I thank you for your courtesy. You will excuse me if I return to my sketching."

Amelia turned to his feet. The red

and the angry light in his eyes seemed to leap like little flickering flames.

"It is a small matter, madam,"

Forrest is courteous to friend or enemy."

"I picked up his hat and basket and, with a low bow, disappeared as suddenly as he had come.

Amelia sat down again, feeling very small and mean. It was quite evident that the heir of the house of Forrest would have ignored her if she, the poor wife of the coachman, had chosen to overlook the antipathy that had lasted for sixty long years.

But Amelia Vernet was Virginian to the core, and, although she never really knew the cause of the estrangement between the two families, she had always minded the trials of Amelia's life.

She here was a young man, last of the Forrests, as Amelia was last of the Vernetts, and they must carry on the feud.

Amelia sighed involuntarily, for she had liked the young man who had been away so long and who must have recently returned.

It was midday now, and she could

not hope to reach the mainland before 5 o'clock—unless she waded.

Amelia looked down at her pretty tan shoes and then turned and peered over the sand dunes toward the town.

The tide was now low, water out of escape for the present. Out in the bay a few salts flushed in the sun, light, but none was within hailing distance.

But Amelia Vernet was Virginian to the core, and, although she never really knew the cause of the estrangement between the two families, she had always minded the trials of Amelia's life.

She here was a young man, last of the Forrests, as Amelia was last of the Vernetts, and they must carry on the feud.

Amelia sighed involuntarily, for she had liked the young man who had been away so long and who must have recently returned.

It was midday now, and she could

not hope to reach the mainland before 5 o'clock—unless she waded.

Amelia looked down at her pretty tan shoes and then turned and peered over the sand dunes toward the town.

The tide was now low, water out of escape for the present. Out in the bay a few salts flushed in the sun, light, but none was within hailing distance.

But Amelia Vernet was Virginian to the core, and, although she never really knew the cause of the estrangement between the two families, she had always minded the trials of Amelia's life.

She here was a young man, last of the Forrests, as Amelia was last of the Vernetts, and they must carry on the feud.

Amelia sighed involuntarily, for she had liked the young man who had been away so long and who must have recently returned.

It was midday now, and she could

not hope to reach the mainland before 5 o'clock—unless she waded.

Amelia looked down at her pretty tan shoes and then turned and peered over the sand dunes toward the town.

The tide was now low, water out of escape for the present. Out in the bay a few salts flushed in the sun, light, but none was within hailing distance.

But Amelia Vernet was Virginian to the core, and, although she never really knew the cause of the estrangement between the two families, she had always minded the trials of Amelia's life.

She here was a young man, last of the Forrests, as Amelia was last of the Vernetts, and they must carry on the feud.

Amelia sighed involuntarily, for she had liked the young man who had been away so long and who must have recently returned.

It was midday now, and she could

not hope to reach the mainland before 5 o'clock—unless she waded.

Amelia looked down at her pretty tan shoes and then turned and peered over the sand dunes toward the town.

The tide was now low, water out of escape for the present. Out in the bay a few salts flushed in the sun, light, but none was within hailing distance.

But Amelia Vernet was Virginian to the core, and, although she never really knew the cause of the estrangement between the two families, she had always minded the trials of Amelia's life.

She here was a young man, last of the Forrests, as Amelia was last of the Vernetts, and they must carry on the feud.

Amelia sighed involuntarily, for she had liked the young man who had been away so long and who must have recently returned.

It was midday now, and she could

not hope to reach the mainland before 5 o'clock—unless she waded.

Amelia looked down at her pretty tan shoes and then turned and peered over the sand dunes toward the town.

The tide was now low, water out of escape for the present. Out in the bay a few salts flushed in the sun, light, but none was within hailing distance.

But Amelia Vernet was Virginian to the core, and, although she never really knew the cause of the estrangement between the two families, she had always minded the trials of Amelia's life.

She here was a young man, last of the Forrests, as Amelia was last of the Vernetts, and they must carry on the feud.

Amelia sighed involuntarily, for she had liked the young man who had been away so long and who must have recently returned.

It was midday now, and she could

not hope to reach the mainland before 5 o'clock—unless she waded.

Amelia looked down at her pretty tan shoes and then turned and peered over the sand dunes toward the town.

The tide was now low, water out of escape for the present. Out in the bay a few salts flushed in the sun, light, but none was within hailing distance.

But Amelia Vernet was Virginian to the core, and, although she never really knew the cause of the estrangement between the two families, she had always minded the trials of Amelia's life.

She here was a young man, last of the Forrests, as Amelia was last of the Vernetts, and they must carry on the feud.

Amelia sighed involuntarily, for she had liked the young man who had been away so long and who must have recently returned.

It was midday now, and she could

not hope to reach the mainland before 5 o'clock—unless she waded.

Amelia looked down at her pretty tan shoes and then turned and peered over the sand dunes toward the town.

The tide was now low, water out of escape for the present. Out in the bay a few salts flushed in the sun, light, but none was within hailing distance.

But Amelia Vernet was Virginian to the core, and, although she never really knew the cause of the estrangement between the two families, she had always minded the trials of Amelia's life.

She here was a young man, last of the Forrests, as Amelia was last of the Vernetts, and they must carry on the feud.

Amelia sighed involuntarily, for she had liked the young man who had been away so long and who must have recently returned.

It was midday now, and she could

not hope to reach the mainland before 5 o'clock—unless she waded.

Amelia looked down at her pretty tan shoes and then turned and peered over the sand dunes toward the town.

The tide was now low, water out of escape for the present. Out in the bay a few salts flushed in the sun, light, but none was within hailing distance.

But Amelia Vernet was Virginian to the core, and, although she never really knew the cause of the estrangement between the two families, she had always minded the trials of Amelia's life.

She here was a young man, last of the Forrests, as Amelia was last of the Vernetts, and they must carry on the feud.

Amelia sighed involuntarily, for she had liked the young man who had been away so long and who must have recently returned.

It was midday now, and she could

not hope to reach the mainland before 5 o'clock—unless she waded.

Amelia looked down at her pretty tan shoes and then turned and peered over the sand dunes toward the town.

The tide was now low, water out of escape for the present. Out in the bay a few salts flushed in the sun, light, but none was within hailing distance.

But Amelia Vernet was Virginian to the core, and, although she never really knew the cause of the estrangement between the two families, she had always minded the trials of Amelia's life.

She here was a young man, last of the Forrests, as Amelia was last of the Vernetts, and they must carry on the feud.

Amelia sighed involuntarily, for she had liked the young man who had been away so long and who must have recently returned.

It was midday now, and she could

not hope to reach the mainland before 5 o'clock—unless she waded.

Amelia looked down at her pretty tan shoes and then turned and peered over the sand dunes toward the town.

The tide was now low, water out of escape for the present. Out in the bay a few salts flushed in the sun, light, but none was within hailing distance.

But Amelia Vernet was Virginian to the core, and, although she never really knew the cause of the estrangement between the two families, she had always minded the trials of Amelia's life.

She here was a young man, last of the Forrests, as Amelia was last of the Vernetts, and they must carry on the feud.

Amelia sighed involuntarily, for she had liked the young man who had been away so long and who must have recently returned.

It was midday now, and she could

not hope to reach the mainland before 5 o'clock—unless she waded.

Amelia looked down at her pretty tan shoes and then turned and peered over the sand dunes toward the town.

The tide was now low, water out of escape for the present. Out in the bay a few salts flushed in the sun, light, but none was within hailing distance.

But Amelia Vernet was Virginian to the core, and, although she never really knew the cause of the estrangement between the two families, she had always minded the trials of Amelia's life.

She here was a young man, last of the Forrests, as Amelia was last of the Vernetts, and they must carry on the feud.

Amelia sighed involuntarily, for she had liked the young man who had been away so long and who must have recently returned.

It was midday now, and she could

not hope to reach the mainland before 5 o'clock—unless she waded.

Amelia looked down at her pretty tan shoes and then turned and peered over the sand dunes toward the town.

The tide was now low, water out of escape for the present. Out in the bay a few salts flushed in the sun, light, but none was within hailing distance.

But Amelia Vernet was Virginian to the core, and, although she never really knew the cause of the estrangement between the two families, she had always minded the trials of Amelia's life.

She here was a young man, last of the Forrests, as Amelia was last of the Vernetts, and they must carry on the feud.

Amelia sighed involuntarily, for she had liked the young man who had been away so long and who must have recently returned.

It was midday now, and she could

not hope to reach the mainland before 5 o'clock—unless she waded.

Amelia looked down at her pretty tan shoes and then turned and peered over the sand dunes toward the town.

The tide was now low, water out of escape for the present. Out in the bay a few salts flushed in the sun, light, but none was within hailing distance.

But Amelia Vernet was Virginian to the core, and, although she never really knew the cause of the estrangement between the two families, she had always minded the trials of Amelia's life.

She here was a young man, last of the Forrests, as Amelia was last of the Vernetts, and they must carry on the feud.

Amelia sighed involuntarily, for she had liked the young man who had been away so long and who must have recently returned.

It was midday now, and she could

not hope to reach the mainland before 5 o'clock—unless she waded.

Amelia looked down at her pretty tan shoes and then turned and peered over the sand dunes toward the town.

The tide was now low, water out of escape for the present. Out in the bay a few salts flushed in the sun, light, but none was within hailing distance.

But Amelia Vernet was Virginian to the core, and, although she never really knew the cause of the estrangement between the two families, she had always minded the trials of Amelia's life.

She here was a young man, last of the Forrests, as Amelia was last of the Vernetts, and they must carry on the feud.

Amelia sighed involuntarily, for she had liked the young man who had been away so long and who must have recently returned.

It was midday now, and she could

not hope to reach the mainland before 5 o'clock—unless she waded.

Amelia looked down at her

Selections

HALLEY'S COMET.

Rushing Toward the Earth a Few Rate of Speed.

Our most important visitor from outer space, like gigantic Halley's comet, is now within measurable distance (astronomically speaking) of the earth and is speeding rapidly at the rate of some thousand miles a minute.

Its advent will afford this generation the most wonderful sidereal sight it is ever likely to witness, and in some quarters of the globe it is likely to cause acute alarm.

Already the soothsayers are busy, the Abbe Dupin and the famous Professor Falsi have both predicted its collision with the earth, though at different dates.

This is consoling so far as it goes, for obviously they cannot both be right. Moreover, it may be as well to remember for our peace of mind that this Professor Falsi is the selfsame author of the prediction that he would foretell the destruction of the world by Blaia's comet on Nov. 13, 1890, while the Abbe Dupin prophesied a similar catastrophe in relation to a comet that should have appeared (but did not) in 1806.

That a wandering comet may some day strike the earth is, however, as certain as the sun rising in the east, although they are not in agreement as to what would happen as the result of such an eventuality or whether, indeed, anything would "happen" at all.

The narrowest "escape" we ever had, it may be mentioned, was in 1832, when the Blaia's comet mentioned above was timed to cross the earth's orbit at distance of only 20,000 miles. Luckily it put in an appearance some four weeks before it was due and when the earth was consequently distant more than 40,000 miles from what would otherwise have been the "point of contact."—Pearson's Weekly.

Sooths itching skin. Heals cuts or burns without a scar. Cures piles, eczema, salt rheum, any itching. Doan's Ointment. Your druggist sells it.

DIVIDEND NO. 1.

The Board of Directors of the MOGUL WAGON CO. at their regular monthly meeting declared a 3 per cent. semi-annual dividend on the Preferred Stock of the Company out of the earnings for the past six months.

This dividend is due and payable on demand at the office of the Company.

D. J. YOUNG,
Sec'y Mogul Wagon Co., Incorporated

Sales Agents Wanted.

$36.00 per week or 40 per cent. profit. All samples, stationery, and art catalogue free. We want one permanent agent in this locality for the largest picture and frame house in America. Experience necessary. We instruct you how to sell our goods and furnish the capital. If you want a permanent, honorable and profitable position, write us to-day for particulars, catalogue and samples. FRANK W. WILLIAMS COMPANY, 1214 W. Taylor St., Chicago, Ill.

To the Farmers.

I am prepared to furnish you Ground Lime-Stone—both the meal and flour—at the mill or f. o. b. cars Julian, Ky. G. H. STOWE, Hopkinsville, Ky., R. F. D. 4. Phone 287-2.

To Tax Payers.

Under the law a penalty of 6 per cent. and 6 per cent. interest is added to all unpaid taxes after Nov. 30, 1908. Please pay before then and save penalty.

J. M. RENSHAW, Sheriff.

Poultry Printing.

We have a very large and complete line of poultry prints, and are prepared to do any and all kinds of printing for poultry raisers at low prices.

Saving Jimmie.

By LULU JOHNSON.

Copyright, 1898, by Associated Literary Press.

"Take her on the trademark, Slimy," said the captain of the team and Slimy, otherwise Master James Treadger, being ever mindful of advertising, painted the sphere with such good effect that the ball sailed over the stone wall at the far end of the lot.

This changed jubilation into regret, for not even three scores brought in by the home run offset the fact that Slimy had knocked a fifty cent ball over the wall into the colonel's garden.

Billy Sniffen, who had been enlisted into leading his new ball to the "blue fellows," some of whom were all of twelve years of age, let out a roar at the sudden disappearance of his property.

Balls that went over the high stone barrier which surrounded the property of the peppy Colonel Moulton were regarded as good as lost. None of the boys dared brave the wrath of the retired officer in search of lost property.

"I am a boy by medevale youth, for he stormed and raved at children. The snarler laid firmly believed that he liked to kill children, and when dusk had fallen they hurried past his house lest he sprang out and seized them.

Now, at the disappearance of the ball, the snarler followed the base runner up to the home plate and joined in the volley of reproach directed toward the unfortunate Slimy.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You better skip over the fence and get it," declared the captain, and the game slipped away.

As a true despot, the captain could not be induced to alter his command, and, though he weakened perceptibly as they drew near the fatal wall, he effected a nouchantance he did not feel.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You better skip over the fence and get it," declared the captain, and the game slipped away.

As a true despot, the captain could not be induced to alter his command, and, though he weakened perceptibly as they drew near the fatal wall, he effected a nouchantance he did not feel.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

"You told me to paste her," he reminded the scowling captain.

"I didn't tell you to knock her over the wall," was the scornful retort.

"Poor Billy's maul kick him when he was losing, and Don Fraser said his dog bit him when he was falling."

This was an angle which the unfortunate William had not hitherto viewed in his loss, and it caused his grief to double.

DAUGHTERS OF CONFEDERACY

Hold Interesting Meeting and Elect Officers For Ensuing Year.

1909 TO BE BANNER YEAR

State Convention Meets Here in October and Preparations to Begin at Once.

The Christian County Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, held a meeting Saturday afternoon at Hotel Latham and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Chas. M. Meacham. First Vice President, Mrs. Mary B. Campbell.

Second Vice President, Mrs. C. F. Jarrett.

Third Vice President, Mrs. A. G. Warfield.

Recording Secretary, Mrs. S. A. Edmunds.

Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Hunter Wood, Jr.

Treasurer, Mrs. Gabe Payne. Registrar, Mrs. R. W. White. Auditor, Miss Fannie Bell Brobaugh.

Historian, Mrs. L. M. Blakenore. Chaplain, Mrs. J. B. McKenzie.

Vice Chaplain, Mrs. W. E. Warfield.

The coming year is expected to be very busy ones as the State Convention meets here in October.

There are 118 members and it will be necessary for every one of them to co-operate in the year's work. The chapter hopes to make it the most successful year in its history.

BARNES BRIEFS.

Two Meetings Closed and Another to Begin.

Barnes, Ky., Nov. 16.—Gathering corn is the order of the day down here at present. Early corn is very good, but that planted late is light.

Tobacco has not been in order since it was cured and no stripping has been done as yet.

Brother Page has closed a series of meetings of two weeks at New Barren Springs Baptist church, Dogwood. There was one convert.

Miss Vernie Powell, of Fruit Hill, is very ill.

Bro. H. C. Ford, of the Christian church, closed a two weeks' meeting at Dogwood, with two additions to the membership. He baptized three in the new baptism of the church.

Mrs. Jennie Adams, of South Christian, attended the Ford meeting Saturday night and Sunday. Mrs. Adams was reared near this place. Mrs. Mollie Robinson and two daughters, Mrs King and Miss Maud, also attended the Ford meeting.

Rev. B. F. Hyde will begin a series of meetings at New Barren Springs Baptist church Monday night after the fourth Sunday in this month. SENRAB.

COLD WAVE

Very Severe For the Time of Year.

The recent rain was followed by a cold wave and many farmers took advantage of the low temperature and killed hogs. Only a few out of each pen were slaughtered, however, as the regular killing will not take place for some days yet.

The present cold wave is the severest experienced in this section in early November for ten or twelve years. The mercury registered 21 degrees below freezing. Friday night and 19 degrees Saturday night. Sunday night it registered 25 degrees.

To those afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble, backache, rheumatism, pimpls for the kidneys bring relief in the first dose. Hundreds of people today testify to their remarkable healing and tonic properties. 30 days trial $1.00. They purify the blood. Sold by Anderson-Fowler Drug Co., Incorporated.

BUYS COTTAGE.

J. F. Ella bought last week a nice cottage on the West Side.

HENEY WILL LIVE

And His Assassin Takes His Own Life in Prison.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 16.—The condition of Francis J. Heney, who was shot in the court room on Friday by Morris Haas, is still most satisfactory and the attending surgeon report that he is making excellent progress on the road to recovery.

Haas committed suicide in his cell Friday night, with a pistol.

The suicide of Haas is the subject of much discussion and the police are engaged in trying to ascertain how he was able to have concealed the pistol with which he took his life after he had been thoroughly searched two or three times.

GAIN OF SIX

All the Democrats Got in the Windup.

Washington, Nov. 16.—The temporary recall of the House of Representatives for the Sixty first Congress has been completed and published. It presents a complete list of members of the new House as shown by unofficial returns, and gives the politics of all of them. According to this publication the next House will consist of 219 Republicans and 172 Democrats, a total of 391, as against a total of 389 in the House during the last session, of whom 223 were Republicans and 166 Democrats.

The result is a net loss of four from the Republican side and a net gain of six on the Democratic side, the discrepancy being due to present vacancies. All told, the Democrats gained seventeen districts and the Republicans twelve.

'POSSUM HUNT

In Honor of Visitor From Mississippi.

The society boys and girls of Pembroke were delightfully entertained at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Leavell with an opussum hunt Friday night, in honor of Miss Hattie Henry, of Shell Round Miss., the attractive niece of Mrs. Leavell. Those present were Misses Ruth Paine, Mary Madison, Bessie Anderson, Ethel Williams, Alice Anderson, Sarah Garnett, Ruth Knight, Hattie Henry and Messrs. Bryant Jones, Guy Dority, Robert Ackerman, George Lackey, Kenston Cross, Frank Hugo, A. C. Bates and Ralph Dry.

WON'T BE DUCHESS

Miss Elkins Says She is Not Engaged to Abruzzi.

Washington, Nov. 16.—Senator Stephen B. Elkins last night made the emphatic announcement that no engagement exists between his daughter, Miss Katherine Elkins, and the Duke of the Abruzzi. The statement was made with the knowledge and consent of Miss Elkins, who desired that the statement should be given to the public, which has manifested so great an interest in the matter.

Cuba's New President.

The election of Gen. Jose Miguel Gomez, the Liberal candidate for President of Cuba, Saturday is considered practically certain, but the returns will be very slow. The polls were closed without disturbances.

Advices from Santiago state that a Liberal victory is assured in Orient province. Perfect order prevailed throughout the day.

In Dr. Jenkens' Pulpit.

Rev. A. C. Cree, of Nashville, preached two sermons at the Baptist church Sunday, in the absence of the pastor, Dr. Jenkens, who is still in the Louisville revival, and preached Sunday at MacCauley's Theatre. Dr. Cree is a preacher of ability and addressed large and attentive congregations at both services.

Teachers' Salaries.

Salaries of teachers of the country schools for the past month were due last Saturday and the day was a busy one for Sept. Gray, as nearly all of the teachers were on hand to receive their checks.

Fringing lumber for sale cheap.

J. H. Winfree.

CHARRED BONES

FOUND IN DEBRIS

All That Remained Of a Man Supposed to Be Albert Johnson.

WAS ALONE IN CABIN.

Fatal Fire On the Farm of C. A. Brasher, Near Casky.

In the early hours of Sunday morning a cabin occupied by Albert Johnson, a colored tenant, was burned on the farm of C. A. Brasher, near Casky, and there seems hardly a doubt that Johnson perished in the flames.

He is missing and the charred bones of an adult human being have been found in the ashes and identified as such by Drs. R. L. Woodward and J. B. Jackson.

Johnson and his wife attended a dance at Masonville Saturday night and Johnson left after midnight in company with Cornelius Merrittewether. His wife remained at Masonville until Sunday morning.

The supposition is that Johnson went home and made up a big fire and soon fell asleep and that he awoke too late to save himself from the burning building.

The bones were found in and around an iron wash tub that was in the room. In the same tub were three silver dollars, a quarter and the clasp of a purse. The theory is that Johnson, blinded by smoke, fell over the tub and where he fell, that he was sleeping in his clothes and the purse containing his money was in his pocket. At this writing Merrittewether has not been heard from.

Johnson was a young man about 25 years old. He had his cabin burned last spring, and the one lost this time had just been completed and occupied about 10 days ago. He had been a trusted hand of Mr. Brasher's for a year or more and was a sober, industrious negro.

DWELLING DESTROYED.

Building Falling In When Alarm Was Sounded.

A frame residence on the corner of Avenue F and Mechanic street was destroyed by fire about 3 o'clock Sunday morning. The dwelling was owned by Lucy Whitlock, col. who is absent from the city. A colored boy was sleeping in the house and was aroused by the roof falling in. He escaped from the burning building by jumping through a window and was badly cut by the glass.

The fire department was called out but the building had practically been consumed before the alarm was turned in. The loss is probably $300.

Value of Insurance.

Fires originate in unexpected places and from unknown causes. Doubtless some one who reads this article will sustain the next loss. Are YOU insured and have you the best insurance your money can buy? The Giant Insurance Agency (Incorporated), settles their losses promptly and equitably and guarantees to sell their policies at as low a rate as any company doing business. Office in First National Bank building. Both 'phones.

SALES WERE SMALL.

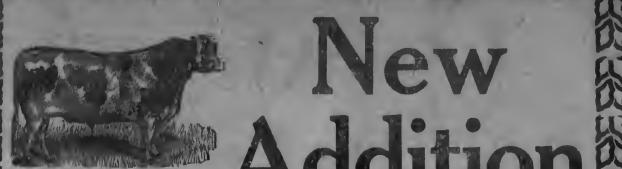

Some New Tobacco Being Received at Prize Houses.

Last week was a rather dull one in local tobacco circles, the total sales for the week amounting to only sixteen bushels. These were disposed of at regular prices. The demand for the weed was light and as a result the sales were the smallest for some time. Now that the contracts for pricing have been allotted it is expected that the new crop of tobacco will begin to move. The first crop of the year was delivered to one of the pricing houses Saturday.

Rings Little Liver Pills for biliousness, sick headache, muddy complexion.

Pimpls for the kidneys bring relief in the first dose. Hundreds of people today testify to their remarkable healing and tonic properties. 30 days trial $1.00. They purify the blood.

Sold by Anderson-Fowler Drug Co., Incorporated.

The Best Home Butchered Meats of

All Kinds.

QUALITY, Our Motto

B. B. RICE,

PHONES: Cumb. 27, Home 1127.

The Andres Co.

FORMERLY

Hennessy-Robinson Co.

EVANSVILLE, INDIANA.

We Are Ready to Welcome You

IN

Our New Store

We'll welcome you in a new store but in the same location as of old, under a new name, but under the same management which has made us so successful in the past, and we'll welcome you in a store that for size and magnificence of its appointments has no equal in the state of Indiana.

We will have ready for your admiration and approval the broadest selections of merchandise ever gathered within the walls of any Evansville store.

Take this as the expression of our most cordial invitation to come. Come and see the Paris Gowns and Millinery; come and see too, how America's leading tailors and designers of women's apparel can match them in elegance and style. See the beautiful new fabrics and trimmings, the lingerie and the thousand other things for use and personal adornment, that we have assembled here, to make this the best store for you and all the people. Come and look around, enjoy the comforts and conveniences of this truly metropolitan store; compare it now with what it was, and you'll justify our pride in this magnificent new store.

We are not unmindful that you have a right to expect great things in values when you come, so we have prepared in each department attractions, which of themselves alone are worth a special journey to secure.

We refund fares to out of town customers according to the plan of the Evansville Retail Merchants' Rebate Association.

The Andres Co.

Moderation.

The moderation of fortunate people comes from the calm which good for stock is stall fed 360 days of the year, and the largest portion the full 365 days.

Acrobatic Pup.
Sign on the window of a New York east side bakery: "Look out for the dog." Undoubtedly which a wag wrote in chalk: "And don't get the rabbit."